Training and Experience

Our team boasts professionals from the most prominent international teaching organization under WRSTC

Diving course from Kids or beginners to experienced and specialty course program

An in-house Instructor trainer ensures on-going quality control and updates and the chance to conduct all courses to begin or continue a Professional diving career.

Courses and experiences related to marine biology, ecospecialty, photo/video, special diving equipment for divers, swimmers and Ocean lovers

Special Event

We strongly believe in cohesion and sharing of information and news dedicated to the Sea, its inhabitants but also techniques and equipment. That is why we love to organize and participate in events dedicated to our esteemed Diveverse and Flamenco Beach/Resort guests, with the cooperation of International Organizations or the presence of special guests (biologists, ecologists, photographers, astronomers etc) or special diving brand

"We like our guests to feel comfortable at all times so we speak and conduct courses in several languages, this is made possible by the presence of professionals from various countries and multiple language backgrounds, but we do our best to make everyone feel part of a "family."

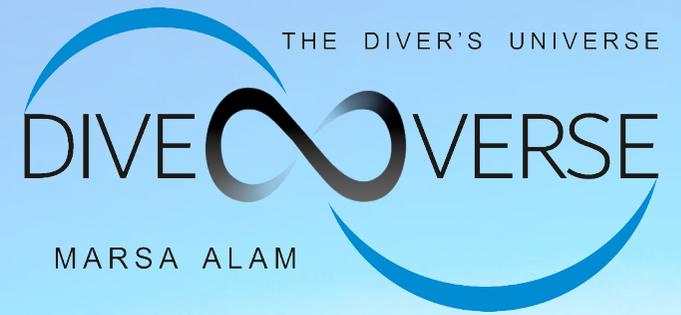

Our commitment has always been related to offering quality service in full compliance with the rules of the host country, its standards and International Standards.

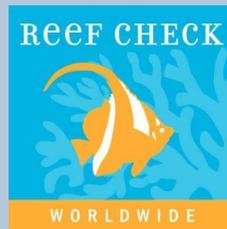

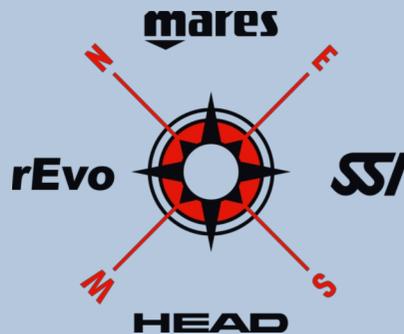

Continuously well maintained and revised diving gear, , constantly evolving teaching materials, clear visual communication.

We have Diving Proposal not only individuals but fantastic as well for families, groups and clubs! Follow us on our channels: website, google, Facebook, instagram, contact us through whatsapp, messenger, e-mail, webform, mybusiness.

We look forward to welcoming You in our center at Flamenco Beach resort!

Forms and waiver

As with all outdoor activities, snorkelling and diving involve some risks. Our staff always check that your health conditions are suitable for this activity and will remember that by law you must sign forms both to certify your state of health and to release liability. Our centre and so, all our guides and instructors are covered by both civil and legal insurance.

Code of conduct and feedback

As you will experience for yourself, we really care about the environment and respect for its creatures. That is why we outline and enforce codes of conduct for encounters with sea creatures both to you and to our employees or service providers. And we value your feedback. That is why we appreciate your advice and suggestions, which you can leave with our on-site manager..
